

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Marcia Broome has dedicated 39 years to the profession of nursing - the last 27 of those years to serving the public health needs of South Dakotans; and,

Whereas, Marcia graduated from Mount Marty College in 1969 with a nursing degree; and,

Whereas, In 1981, Marcia joined the South Dakota Department of Health as a part-time registered nurse for the home health program in Gregory County and moved to a full-time position in 1982 in the same office performing WIC, Family Planning, and Community Health Services; and,

Whereas, Marcia was actively involved with the VENA Committee to update WIC forms and procedures and the Family Planning Workgroup; and,

Whereas, Marcia was an organizer for the Gregory County Immunization Coalition and is a valued member of the Department of Health as a dedicated and loyal employee; and,

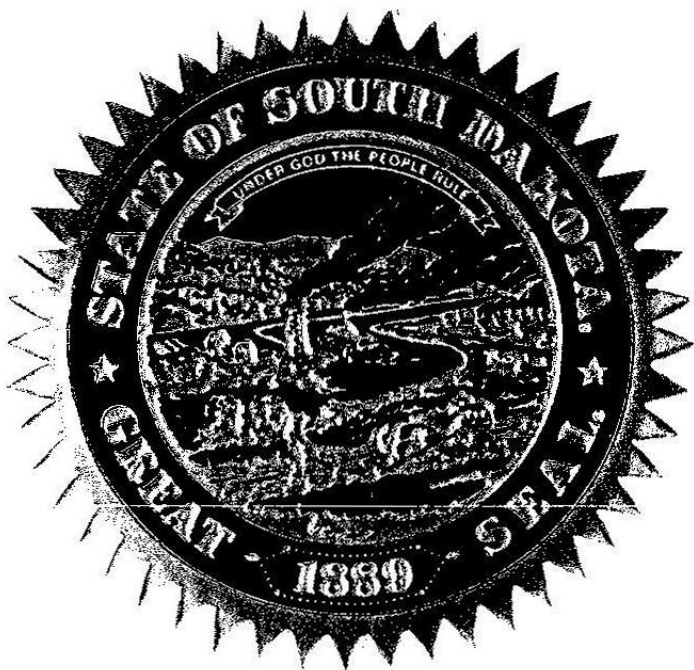

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement from the Department of Health on July 8, 2008:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 8, 2008, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and colleagues in offering best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

MARCIA BROOME DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-third Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Eight.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State